Genealogy 101 - How to Research Your Family History

Saturday, March 7, 10:30 am - 12:30pm

Thinking about exploring your family history but not sure where to begin? This session will cover the whats and whys of genealogy research, including how to plan your research, what types of documents and records are available, and how to use charts and reports to keep track of what you find. We will also discuss common mistakes, the importance of citations, and an overview of DNA basics. Whether you are just getting started or want to build a stronger foundation for your research, this program will give you practical tools and confidence to move forward.

Book Bedazzling

Saturday, March 14, 11 am - 1pm

It's diamond art, but your favorite book is the canvas. Bring your own book and decorate it with rhinestones and glue at Book Bedazzling. All bling is provided. Program intended for adults and teens (12+).

Pin Worthy - Friday Crafternoon series

Mar 27 & Apr 3, 17, 24 & May 1 @ 1:30pm

Join us for Pin Worthy Crafternoons, a relaxed and creative workshop series designed just for adults. Each week we'll bring a popular Pinterest idea to life, creating an easy, hands on craft you can proudly take home and display. No experience needed. We'll provide the materials, simple step by step guidance, and plenty of time to enjoy the process. Whether you come for the creativity, the conversation, or just a fun afternoon out, you'll leave with something handmade and truly pin worthy.

Books & Bots - Storytime meets coding for ages 5 to 8

Friday, March 20, 10:30am

Children will enjoy a featured picture book and then bring the story to life using Bee-Bot. Participants will practice sequencing, problem solving, and teamwork while building early literacy and STEM skills. No experience needed. Registration required.

Opening Day @ Storytime Stables

Friday, March 20, 2pm

Our herd is arriving. Join us as we launch Storybook Stables, our new Breyer horse lending collection for ages 5 to 12. Celebrate opening day with horse themed crafts, activities, and plenty of stable inspired fun. Be among the first to meet the herd and learn how you can borrow a horse and bring home a story.

Every program at Your Library is free and open to all, made possible by the generosity of volunteers, sponsors, donors, and library resources.
