Browse our VVSCCL Halloween Shop

Friday, October 9 from 10am - 4pm

Saturday, October 10 from 10am - 1pm

Need a Halloween costume? Come browse our collection of clean, gently used costumes and accessories for all ages. Save money and find a new-to-you costume! Give a costume a second Halloween. Costumes are free and available while supplies last.

Drop-in Craft - Fall Paper Squishy

Friday, October 9 - 10:30am - 2:30pm

Squish into fall! Create your own fun paper squishy to take home. Drop in anytime during the craft. All ages welcome! All supplies provided.

Meet Caroline: An American Girl Adventure

Friday, October 9 - 1pm - 2:30pm

No school? Come spend the afternoon at the library! Meet Caroline Abbott, our newest American Girl doll, and step into the world of 1812 through Caroline's story and the history of our own local backyard, Sackets Harbor. One lucky participant will be chosen at random to be the very first person to borrow Caroline from the library. For ages 5-12. Only 15 spots available!

Crafternoon: Black Cat Wood Slices

Friday, October 23 - 1:30pm - 3pm

Create a charming Halloween decoration using a wood slice, river rocks, paint, and a few simple materials. Come make your own adorable black cat to take home! All supplies provided. Registration is limited to 20 participants.

The Haunted Library After Dark Adventure

Friday, October 23 - 6:30pm - 7:30pm

Read The Haunted Library by Dori Hillestad Butler together as a family, then join us after hours for a spooky but not scary family book club adventure! We'll talk about the book, take a flashlight tour of the library after dark, and enjoy some fun surprises along the way. The Haunted Library is a short chapter book recommended for ages 6-9. This program is intended for ages 5-10 with one or more grown-ups. Registration is limited to 10 families. Copies of the book are available to borrow when you register.
